

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 16

Homecoming and Family Weekend Registration      Leo Block Alumni Center, Conference Room
9:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Pick up your registration packets, event tickets, weekend credentials and more before you explore DU during Homecoming and Family Weekend. Free.

Homecoming and Family Weekend Hospitality Center      Carnegie Green, Outdoor Tent
9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Please stop by the hospitality tent that will be located on Carnegie Green on Oct. 16-17. Enjoy a place to relax, rejuvenate or recharge with a phone-charging station, lounge area and beverage cart. You can also discover new authors and meet them face-to-face during Book Chat at the Book Stack, occurring throughout the day at the same location. Sponsored by University Advancement Annual Giving & Donor Relations. Free.

Parent's Lecture: DU History in Pictures      Margery Reed, Reiman Theater
10:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.

This presentation is based on University Historian Steve Fisher's book, which is part of Arcadia Publishing's Images of America series. You will have the opportunity to view fascinating glimpses into the University of Denver and the environs, most notably the University Park neighborhood and former town of South Denver. Free.

"Explore DU" Campus Tours      Begins at Leo Block Alumni Center
10:00 – 11:30 a.m.

Experience for yourself the beauty, vitality and stunning architecture of our campus through a variety of tours, including a student-guided tour of the art across campus, a history lesson on foot with the University's historian or a campus tour showcasing the incredible changes the University has seen over the past 20 years. Free.

Exhibit: Annabeth Rosen Ceramics and Drawings      Vicki Myhren Gallery
10:00 a.m. – 7:00 p.m.

Annabeth Rosen will be featured in an exhibition of pieces from an ongoing series of bundled and collected ceramic handmade 'found' objects. One large piece will also be included in the show, as well as large-scale drawings made in tandem with the work. As a Hamilton Visiting Artist, Rosen has already established multiple connections at the University of Denver and with our partners at the Denver Art Museum, which holds one of her larger works. She holds the Robert Arneson Endowed Chair at the University of California, Davis. Free.

Homecoming and Family Weekend Book Sale

Parent's Lecture: Magnetic Networking: Teaching Your Student to Build a Professional Community

Margery Reed, Reiman Theater

11:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

"It's not what you know, but who you know." Despite major changes in the workforce, networking has remained a powerful, constant force for securing employment, promotion and advancement as well as navigating organizational politics. While most of us understand the importance of networking, to many, networking can feel shallow and transactional. In addition, some view networking as an extrovert-only skill or an inheritance over which we have limited control. Join us at this networking workshop to update your networking skills and learn strategies you can share to help your student make a strong first impression with key professionals. Free.

DU Book Chat at the Book Stack featuring Helen Thorpe

Carnegie Green

11:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

New to Homecoming this year is this two-day author speaker series. Five authors close to the University community will read from their books and take questions from guests. Helen Thorpe, former first lady of Colorado and current student at DU, is the author of Just Like Us, winner of the Colorado Book Award; and Soldier Girls, which was named the No. 1 nonfiction book of the year by TIME. Free. Please note new date and time.
